COMMON ORDER

In these three writ petitions, the petitioner seeks a direction to the first respondent to accept the respective appeals by treating the date of filing the appeal as 18.06.2021.

2. In the above cases, refund rejection orders were issued against the petitioner in relation to claims for refund of IGST on ocean freight. All three appeals were presented on 18.06.2021 before the appellate authority. As per Rule 108(3) of applicable GST Rules, the petitioner was required to file a hard copy of the impugned order within seven days of presentation of the appeal. This requirement was not complied with until 02.02.2024.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner relied on a judgment of this Court in M/s.PKV Agencies v. The Appellate Deputy Commissioner (GST) (Appeals), Vellore, (PKV Agencies) , 2023 (2) TMI 932 to contend that Rule 108(3) is a purely procedural requirement and that the appeal is required to be processed provided the appeal was filed within time. Apart from pointing out that the impugned order is available with the appellate authority, learned counsel further submits that the question of refund of IGST on ocean freight was decided by several High Courts, including this Court. In those circumstances, learned counsel submits that great prejudice would be caused to the petitioner unless the appeals are processed.

4. Ms.K.Vasanthamala, learned Government Advocate, accepts notice for the respondents. She points out that the appeals were not processed on account of the petitioner not filing the physical copy of the impugned orders.

5. In PKV Agencies, this Court followed the judgment of the Orissa High Court in M/s.Atlas PVC Pipes Ltd. v. State of Odisha, 2022 (7) TMI 130. In effect, the Court concluded that the non-production of the hard copy of the impugned order is only a technical defect and that the appeal is required to be processed provided the appeal was filed within time. In the cases at hand, the refund rejection orders were issued on 19.03.2021 and the appeals were lodged on 18.06.2021. As such, the appeals were filed within time limit prescribed by statute. In those circumstances, the ratio of PKV Agencies is applicable. Therefore, these writ petitions are disposed of by directing the first respondent to process the respective appeals by not rejecting the same on the ground that the physical copy of the impugned orders were filed on 02.02.2024. If the appeals are otherwise in order, the first respondent is directed to number the appeals within one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. W.P.Nos.12101, 12103 & 12105 of 2024 are disposed of on the above terms. No costs.
